MYSTERY FREIGHT THAT HORRIFIED THE WALTHAM AUTHORITIES.

It Was a Society Insignia Shipped by a New York Manufacturer.

W. A. Hamold, who equips military companies, secret societies and lodges at 69 West 17th street, called upon to explain a peculiar shipment made by him to one W. W. Marsh, of Waltham, Mass.

The shipment consisted of a suspicious box 6 feet long, 3 feet deep and 2 feet wide.

Mr. Marsh wouldn't accept the package at the express office, and it was opened yesterday by an ex-Idiom in the presence of an awe-stricken and breathless gathering of reporters and citizens.

It was attached to the upper end of the casket by a wire hook that ran into a crevice in the top of the skull, and every bone nearly had a fit.

An Evening World reporter visited Mr. Hamold this morning and asked for an explanation.

Mr. Hamold turned pale. "I know what the new order started that the Adam's skeleton business would get into a scrape, and I'm sorry to say that it has happened."

The ritual was a sort of monopoly by the Lord High Priest, who "must be, according to ritual, old and baldheaded in marriage."

The High Priest with suitable gestures pronounced the ritual, and then he took Adam, the first Benedict, was long-souled, long-haired and sighted for a mate; how he got into the box, he needed no lawyer to use an apple-twig or a nail when a sponder button gave way.

Nervous Headaches.

How to Perfectly Cure Them.

Nearly all forms of headaches are nervous headaches, and are caused by a weakness, irritation or disease of the brain tissues or nerves of the head, and in order to cure such cases it is absolutely necessary to use the nerve remedy, which, by acting directly upon the affected portions of the nervous system, restores their natural and healthy condition.

Never neglect a headache, no matter how slight, in the spring especially, as it almost invariably leads to serious results. The best known remedy for this disease is Dr. Green's Nervine, which can be obtained at the drug store for 25 cents per bottle. It is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Many persons who suffer from headache have, by repeated failure to find relief, despaired of cure. To such we would say, "Do not despair, for this is the best remedy, and you will be surprised and pleased at its marvellous effect. It is the most perfect cure known for headache."

THE GREAT HEADACHE CURE. For over twenty years my life was made miserable by treatment and medicine, and I have never been cured. I was so severely affected by nervous headache, that I was unable to do any work, and I was nearly driven to the grave. I was cured by Dr. Green's Nervine, and I have never had any trouble with my head since that time. To strengthen my nerves and build up my system I continued the medicine for several months. After my cure, twenty years I was cured by Dr. Green's Nervine. MRS. MARY GREEN.

Dr. Green, the famous specialist in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases of the head, teeth, etc. New York, can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

M'CALLA'S COURT-MARTIAL.

The Enterprise's Commander on Trial for His Alleged Brutality.

Bowman H. McCalla, late commander of the United States sloop-of-war Enterprise, was placed on trial to-day before a court-martial composed of thirteen officers of the United States Navy.

The story of McCalla's alleged cruelties while commanding the Enterprise on her last voyage were fully related in The Evening World when the ship arrived in this port.

Punishments, the like of which were never before heard of in the American Navy, were alleged to have been inflicted on the seamen of that vessel.

According to their own story, they were put in irons, and were confined in ironed and padded below a group of Russian nobles.

A Court of Inquiry was ordered when the vessel arrived in port and the charges were thoroughly investigated.

On the Court's recommendation the court-martial was ordered. It is composed of Rear-Admiral David H. Bagley, Capt. Henry Erben, Capt. Richard W. Meade, Commandant at the Washington Navy-Yard; Capt. Lester A. Beardslee, commander of the Department of Artillery, and others.

McCalla is tried on five distinct charges as follows: Cutting down Fireman John E. H. Wadleigh, Commander of the crew, punishment upon the crew in violation of the Articles of War, and others.

McCalla is under arrest, appeared, according to his counsel, shortly before noon, when the Court convened.
